

THOMAS ODERMATT TO OPEN NEW RESTAURANT, ROTISARIO, IN NAPA'S OXBOW MARKET THIS FALL

(Napa, CA) Thomas Odermatt, the founder of the popular RoliRoti rotisserie trucks serving Bay Area farmers markets, is opening a new rotisserie-inspired restaurant at the Oxbow Market in Napa Valley. The market is scheduled to open Autumn 2007.

"This will be a new concept for rotisserie," states Odermatt. "The fare will be a fusion between European and Asian, prepared and served very quickly, in an easy-to-eat style." The new restaurant is to be named "Rotisario."

As he does for RoliRoti, Odermatt will be sourcing and cooking the finest organic and sustainably-farmed meats and produce available.
